New Covid-19 Regulations Update: The new BC provincial gathering order is now uploaded onto the government website. Here are the current restrictions:

BRITISH COLUMBIA (not included is Northern Health & Fraser Health (only East part of the region):

- Worship services have no size restrictions as long as everyone attending has a valid vaccine passport. If not, only 50% of the room capacity can attend. Either way, masks are required and can only be removed for ceremonial eating, officiant speaking, and solo singing (with appropriate social distancing)
- No restrictions on choir practices, but masks are required for singing (except if solos are being done, and with appropriate social distancing)
- No restrictions for indoor gatherings if everyone 12yrs. and over is vaccinated. If not, do not exceed 50 people to avoid the vaccine passport. (Potlucks, Christmas dinners, birthday parties, gym nights, etc.)
- No vaccine or mask requirement for outdoor events. Size limit is restricted to 5,000 people or 50% of venue capacity.

If you would like to read the full details on the provincial order here is the link:
